Critical Text Analysis and Foundational Math Compatible Courses

Based on your ACT or SAT scores you have placed into Critical Text Analysis and Foundational Math. You must take them your first semester unless you have transfer credit that satisfies these requirements. You have the option of taking the ACCUPLACER test to place out of these foundation courses. Please speak with your advisor for more information and visit http://test.unm.edu/tests/accuplacer-placement-test.html

Based on your placement you may only take courses from the following list:

Communication:
Check your English placement for applicable classes
COMM 1130: Public Speaking

Mathematics and Statistics:
None

Physical and Natural Sciences:
None

Social and Behavioral Sciences:
None

Humanities:
CCST 2110: Intro to Chicana & Chicano Studies (if attached to a Learning Community)

Second Language:
All second language courses

Arts and Design:
Any 3 credit hour Fine Arts Studio or Performance Course

Elective Courses (possibly required by some majors):
ARCH 1125: Design Fundamentals
ARCH 1115: Introduction to Architectural Graphics
CS 150: Computing for Business Students (must have placed in Math 121 or higher)
HED 1220: Personal Health Management
HLED 1112: Standard First Aid and CPR
(UNIV 101) FYEX110: Introduction to UNM & Higher Education
Any PHED course: (PE – Non-Professional)