Critical Text Analysis Compatible Courses

Based on your ACT or SAT scores you have placed into Critical Text Analysis. You must take it your first semester unless you have transfer credit that satisfies this requirement. You have the option of taking the ACCUPLACER test to place out of this foundation course. Please speak with your advisor for more information and visit http://test.unm.edu/tests/accuplacer-placement-test.html

Based on your placement you may only take courses from the following list:

Communication:
Check your English placement for applicable classes
COMM 1130: Public Speaking

Mathematics and Statistics:
Check your placement for applicable classes

Physical and Natural Sciences:
CS 108L: Computer Science for All

Social and Behavioral Sciences:
None

Humanities:

Second Language:
All Second Language Courses

Arts and Design:
Any 3 credit hour Fine Arts Studio or Performance Course

Elective Courses (Possibly required by some majors):
ARCH 109: Design Fundamentals
ARCH 111: Introduction to Architectural Graphics
BCIS 1110: Intro to Information Systems (must have placed in Math 1220 or higher)
HLED 1220: Personal Health Management
HLED 1120: American Red Cross First Aid and CPR/AED (limited availability)
FYEX 1110: Introduction to UNM & Higher Ed
Any PHED course: (PE – Non-Professional)